The Day the Sea Was Whipped â€” the Storyteller's Hat History of corporal punishment and capital penalty would be much less rich without the Persiansâ€™™ inventiveness. If one was to establish a podium celebrating the most creative persecutors of all time, the Persian Empire, which has peppered Antiquity with cruel, hellish tortures, would probably take first place (with medieval Inquisition right. The Robin Hood of the Sea â€” the Storyteller's Hat Born to English parents in the late 17th century, Samuel Bellamy is recognized nowadays as one of the most romantic pirate figures ever known. His career at sea started when he joined the Royal Navy at an early age; but soon free of any military duty, he headed to Cape Cod (now Massachusetts) where heâ€™.
